School's (Almost) in Session

Dear educators,

Back-to-school energy is in the air! PBS Wisconsin Education is here to support your school year preparations with free educational resources and professional learning.

Get started with:

- A handy tutorial on integrating PBS LearningMedia into Google Classroom
- Joyful music from the Re/sound: Songs of Wisconsin collection
- A webinar series on inspiring students and building community

Happy exploring!

PBS LearningMedia +
Google Classroom

Learn how to integrate PBS LearningMedia into Google Classroom in less than five minutes! Import classes and share content with students, like Crash Course and Above the Noise, and your favorite PBS Wisconsin Education resources, too!

Ring in the school year with Re/sound

Bring the eclectic music of Richard Hildner Armacanqui and Juan Tomás Martínez to your learning spaces with their performance in the Re/sound: Songs of Wisconsin collection. Add their music to your classroom playlist and use the resource as a spark for conversations to get to know students.

Inspiring Our Students webinar series

Join PBS Wisconsin Education for a three-part webinar series focused on various ways to inspire students. Practice fun community-building exercises to use in your learning spaces. Participants will be entered in a drawing to win awesome PBS prizes! (Grades PreK-8)
