Engage and Explore

Dear educators,

The month of February can feel as long as the first 100 days of school! Brighten up the winter wind-down with fresh, fun resources from PBS Wisconsin Education and PBS KIDS!

Check out high-quality content to spark curiosity, including:

- Marcya Daneille's interview and music performance in the Re/sound: Songs of Wisconsin collection.
- The all-new PBS KIDS series, Lyla in the Loop, with activities to extend learning.

Then, check out our events page to see where you can connect with PBS Wisconsin Education at upcoming conferences.

Happy exploring!

Your partner in education,
Tawny Morrison
Education Communications Specialist
Re/sound: Marcya Daneille

Milwaukee-based jazz vocalist Marcya Daneille shares why it's important to examine the history of the music we consume in the Re/sound: Songs of Wisconsin collection. She also performs the jazz standard "My Funny Valentine." (Grades 4-8)

NEW! Lyla in the Loop

Lyla in the Loop is a new PBS KIDS series featuring seven-year-old Lyla and her blue buddy Stu as they solve everyday challenges with creative thinking. Use the accompanying resources on PBS LearningMedia to encourage children to practice critical thinking skills. (Grades K-2)

Upcoming events

The spring conference season is in full swing! Check PBS Wisconsin Education's events page to see where we'll be presenting this season, including the National At-Risk Education Network Conference on February 22 and the Wisconsin Head Start Association Conference on February 26.

Behind the scenes at PBS Wisconsin Education
PBS Wisconsin Garden and Landscape Expo

PBS Wisconsin Education got to spend time at the Wisconsin Garden and Landscape Expo, sparking curiosity with children and families. Kids made crafts and added their wonders to the Wonder Wall!

PBS Wisconsin Education activates technology to serve learners and educators, because learning happens everywhere - the world is our classroom. We amplify your expertise - along with best practices in education - to nurture learning in Wisconsin’s classrooms, virtual environments and neighborhoods.