Go On a (Virtual) Road Trip

Dear Wisconsin educators,

Forget the luggage and explore the world this summer with PBS!

Start with a trip to the state Capitol with the Jo Wilder and the Capitol Case history game. Then, head north to learn about remote lighthouse living with The Look Back. Looking for adventure further from home? Take a trip to Australia with Let's Go Luna! and PBS KIDS.

Finally, if you've been considering joining our Youth Media Workshop in August, this is your sign to register before spots are gone!

Happy exploring!

Jo Wilder takes the case

Practice historical inquiry skills in this point-and-click adventure game featuring Jo Wilder, a girl who uncovers the stories behind mysterious artifacts from Wisconsin state history. The educator resources page includes a guide with vocabulary, save codes, standards supported, and guiding questions. (Grades 3-6)

Tour a lighthouse

Everyone craves a quiet getaway sometimes, but the job of a lighthouse keeper could be downright lonely! Head to the Pottawatomie Lighthouse in Door County with The Look Back to learn why. Then, take a virtual tour to uncover more about lighthouse living. (Grades 4-6)

Luna heads to Australia

Learn about Sydney, Australia, with video clips from Let's Go Luna! This classroom-ready collection also includes printables for designing boomerangs, a lesson plan for making didgeridoos, and more. PLUS: resources are available in English and Spanish. (Grades K-2)

Behind the scenes with PBS Wisconsin Education

Where in Wisconsin?

PBS Wisconsin Education's production team recently spent time at the Crandon International Raceway filming for new content coming to The Ways. Stay tuned for updates!
