Conjure Curiosity

Dear Educators,

Each October I end up re-watching the Curious George: A Halloween Boofest movie. My oldest has outgrown his Curious George phase and my youngest is too little to enjoy it yet, but the PBS KIDS nostalgia is irresistibly uplifting.

Help children create PBS KIDS memories of their own and nurture a love of learning with ready-to-use resources like the Foggy Trick or Treat video clip and activity from Weather Hunters and a curated collection of activities for celebrating fall.

Then, check out a treasure trove of professional learning and literacy instruction resources from Reading Universe.

Finally, applications for our PBS KIDS Library Cohort are open! Wisconsin library staff are invited to apply by November 14.

Happy Exploring!
