Grow Kindness in Your Learning Community

Dear Educators,

February is traditionally a time when we focus on kindness and compassion in learning spaces. Right now it feels more important than ever to nurture empathy and build connection in our communities.

Turn to PBS for practical, free-to-use resources and media you can use anytime, including:

- A collection of PBS resources centered on kindness
- Professional learning on supporting communities experiencing community violence

Plus, enter our Kindness Giveaway for a chance to win a package of PBS goodies!

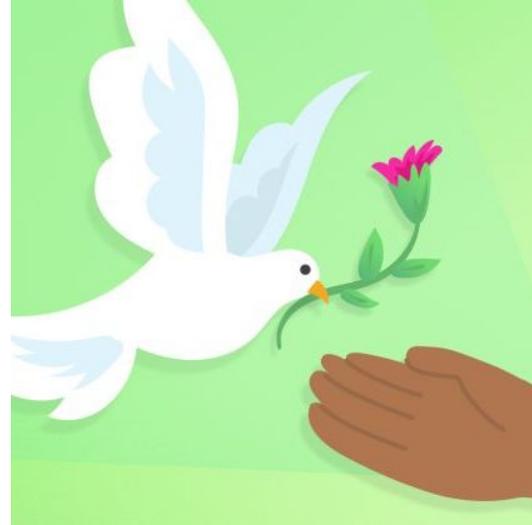

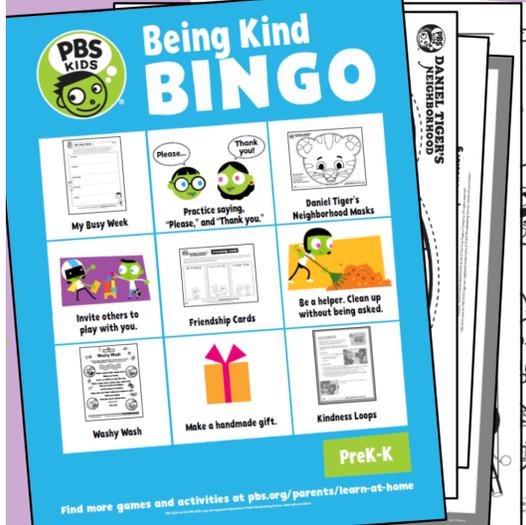

Finally, check out the new PBS KIDS series, Phoebe and Jay, focused on informational texts and creative problem solving.

Happy exploring!
