Let's Read!

Dear Educators,

A lifelong love of reading begins early, and we're grateful for all you do to help children and families get off to a great start.

Count on PBS Wisconsin Education to help you discover research-based resources and activities you can add to your toolbox, including:

- A letter lesson plan and activity from Super Why!
- Family connections and activities
- Professional learning made especially for paraprofessionals
- Early learning book recommendations

Happy exploring!

Lickety letters

Practice identifying and writing letters with Super Why! This convenient collection includes a short video clip, lesson plan, and printable. Children will build an alphabet tool and build their name or familiar sight words. PLUS: Find extension activities and at-home connections.

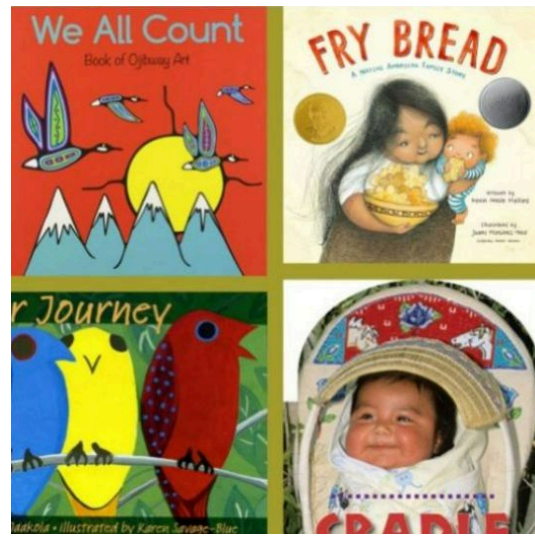

Grab the lesson and go

Literacy + family connections

Help children connect with family and traditions at home with the Family Storytelling Bingo activities on PBS LearningMedia. This series of printables and activities supports literacy skills while inviting families to celebrate memories and stories important to them.
