

November 11, 2026

National Family Literacy Month

Dear educators,

While the squirrels are gathering things for winter weather, many families are gathering ideas to keep kids busy long after an early sunset.

National Family Literacy Month is a great launchpad for sharing family activities to learn and play together, including:

- Bookmarks to spark reading fun
- A pup-tastic Molly of Denali activity
- A game for exploring opposite words

Then, check out a course from Sesame Workshop on strategies and tools to support early literacy development in your learning space.

Happy exploring!
Tawny Morrison
Education Communications Specialist

Forward This Newsletter

Read with Me bookmarks

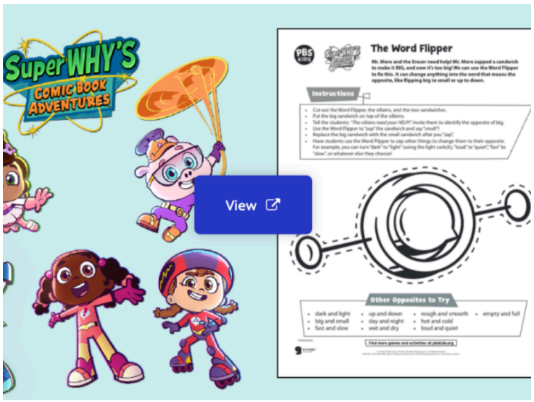

Create a dog sled adventure

Family reading time supports early literacy skills in many ways. These printable, colorable bookmarks from Sesame Workshop include simple ideas for making it fun for everyone!

Print and share

Print this activity for families to take home and learn about dog sleds, practice reading and following instructions, and create their own stories together.

Get the activity

Explore opposites

Use a short episode and mini-lesson from Super Why's Comic Book Adventures to explore opposite words. The printable activity can be done in your learning space or sent with families to do at home.

Take me to the resources!

FREE professional learning

Learn ways to engage children in language and literacy learning with resources from Sesame Street in this self-paced online course. Early care providers can earn free credits the Wisconsin Registry.

Get started

View Upcoming Events

PBS Wisconsin Education creates and curates free-to-use, high-quality educational resources while connecting with Wisconsin's most valuable resource – teachers.

PBS Wisconsin is a service of the Wisconsin Educational Communications Board and University of Wisconsin-Madison. Copyright © 2026 All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.